

Customer experience journey map

Use this framework to better understand customer needs, motivations, and obstacles by illustrating a key scenario or process from start to finish. When possible, use this map to document and summarize interviews and observations with real people rather than relying on your hunches or assumptions.

Document an existing experience

Narrow your focus to a specific scenario or process within an existing product or service. In the Steps row, document the step-by-step process someone typically experiences, then add detail to each of the other rows.

SCENARIO Browsing, booking, attending, and rating a local city tour	 Entice How does someone initially become aware of this process?	 Engage What experience begins?
Steps What does the person (or group) typically experience?	Timely collection of waste They discover about smartbins when waste are collected at right time Disposing waste They became aware of smartbins when it seems clean around the trash cans Browsing about smartbins People come to know about the benefits of smartbins	What comes next? When will they complete the process?
Interactions What interactions do they have at each step along the way? People: Who do they see or talk to? Places: Where are they? Things: What digital touchpoints or physical objects would they use?	People come to know about smartbins when they interact with municipal When they visit the location where smartbins are implemented	Municipal trash
